Written by

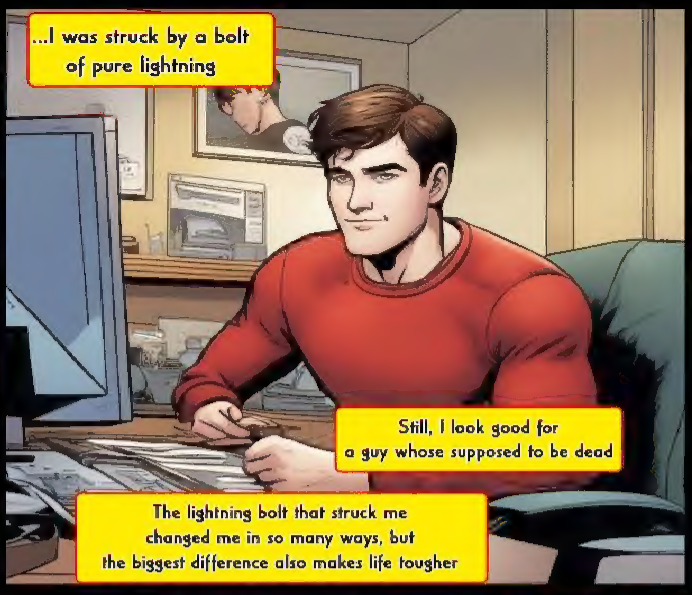
So, Who Am I? Ineresting question
I'm just a teenager, small desk full of work
But that's just the surface!
because I'm not like most teenagers...!
CENTRAL CITY COLLEGE.



...I was struck by a bolt of pure lightning
Still, I look good for a guy whose supposed to be dead
The lightning bolt that struck me changed me in so many ways, but the biggest difference also makes life tougher

Lesson are boring but still, hard work pays off right?
Hey Allen, Stay awake nerd.
And then there's the 'cool' guys, idiots. If only the knew

Knew what I did with my time, knew that I was more more than a nerd.
A building is blazing in fire, hundreds may die
Looks like that's my cue.

People need help and that's now my responsibility
For when danger strikes I become someone else...
Something else... Something...

Better...
...FASTER

The media called me 'The Crimson Blur'
But after jay disappeared I announced it as 'THE FLASH' in his honour as he trained me

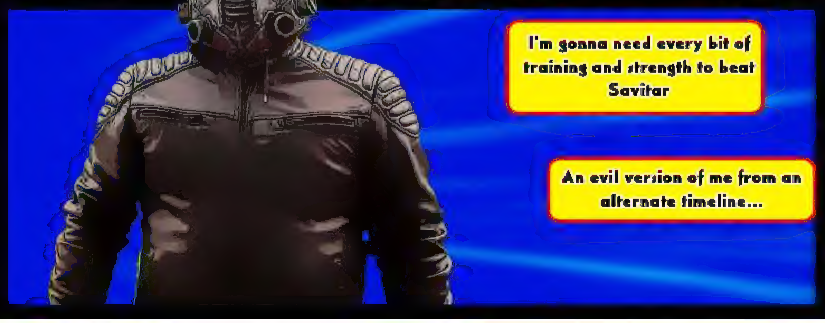
Four or so years later, and I'm the hero of Central City
The Fastest Man Alive

This is Ralph, he's a decent guy He's kept my secret so far....

...Now we work at CCPD together and fight crime, it's tricky but we manage
I covered with Singh for you, seventh time this month, Allen. Tut tut
Thanks, saves me having to deal with a shouting match with the captain.
It's hard enough running into firey buildings without Ralph making snarky comments, still, could be worse
I could have an Arrow in my back, or gas from an Arrow in my face or anything that Oliver dreams up this week.

Oliver Queen aka. The Green Arrow or as I call him, mr broody
His training methods are questionable but he did save my life from Savitar and Thawne

Now he's helping me become a better hero, I could use the help



I'm gonna need every bit of training and strength to beat Savitar
An evil version of me from an alternate timeline...

And my nemesis, Eobard Thawne aka The reverse Flash
So, now you're caught up, I think it's time we see what I'm doing
Knowing my life, I'm averting a new crisis...

Oliver do you copy?
I'm here, henry. What you got for me tonight?
You were right, there's someone working with Cobra
I knew it. Where are they? I think the Arrow might want a word
A secret Hideout on west Avenue in Central, not so secret now. need a hand?
Not yet, I got a guy in central. Time to suit up!
Thanks Fyff
Oh you're welcome Oliver. Would it be hard?

So, now we're back to me, trying to work.
CCPD CRIME LAB.
Finally I can get some work done and hopefully catch up on my university work.
Or I can sit here because everytime I try and work I get a crisis emerge...Maybe one bit of work. .

Yep, Spoke too soon. Jesus Oliver it's nearly midnight
Hey, Ollie. What's up? you do know I have a day job? I'm not rich.
I've got a lead on Cobra, Need backup.
Be there in a...

Don't you dare finish that sentence!
Fla---

Skipping training is one thing, cheesy catchphrases are where I draw the line
What about that "Failed City" thing?
Why are we here? You said you have a lead. Where is it?
Apparently Cobra wasn't working alone. His henchman is going to be here any minute
Stay here and only race in and suit up IF I need you. You need to learn patience.
Yeah, totally not suiting up

Henchman Don't move.
Green Arrow, We wondered when you'd show up.
Where's Golden Cobra.One Chance .
Tell me or I'll force it out of you.
Then do it. I will never tell. You'll have to kill me hero

Hit me with your best shot
WHAT?
BARRY! NO!

Feeling pretty good about myself, but as always I screwed it up
IET'S SEE HOW TALKATIVE HE IS IN IRON HEIGHTS
I really wanted to give you another chance but you don't take my training seriously
We can interview him as easily at Iron heights. Chill.
Cobra escaped in minutes, by the time we interview him he'll be gone.
I think It's time we ceased this partnership for now. I don't need loose cannons.
Well done, Allen. Smooth
